

CELEBRATING GOD'S MIGHTY ACTS

THE MAGNIFICAT

LUKE 1

And Mary said,

"My soul magnifies the Lord,
and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior,
for he has looked on the humble estate of his servant.

For behold, from now on all generations will call me blessed;
for he who is mighty has done great things for me,
and holy is his name.

And his mercy is for those who fear him
from generation to generation.

He has shown strength with his arm;
he has scattered the proud in the thoughts of their hearts;

he has brought down the mighty from their thrones
and exalted those of humble estate;

he has filled the hungry with good things,
and the rich he has sent away empty.

He has helped his servant Israel,
in remembrance of his mercy,

as he spoke to our fathers,

to Abraham and to his offspring forever." (46-55)

Ephesians

all things according to the counsel of his will, so that we who were the first to hope in Christ might be to the praise of his glory. In him you also, when you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and believed in him, you received the promised Holy Spirit, who is the guarantee of our inheritance until we acquire possession of it, to the praise of his glory.

For he has chosen us in him before the world began, that we should be holy and blameless before him. In love he has predestined us for adoption as sons through Jesus Christ, to himself, in order that he should present to himself the church, a holy and blameless church, not having a spot or wrinkle or anything of the kind, that she should be presented to him in glory, without stain or anything of the kind, like that.

He has purposed to bring us to himself by the word of truth, that he should cleanse us to himself by the washing of water by the word, that he should present to himself the church, a holy and blameless church, not having a spot or wrinkle or anything of the kind, that she should be presented to him in glory, without stain or anything of the kind, like that.

When he chose us in himself, we were holy and blameless in his sight, like that, by the word of truth, that he should cleanse us to himself by the washing of water by the word, that he should present to himself the church, a holy and blameless church, not having a spot or wrinkle or anything of the kind, that she should be presented to him in glory, without stain or anything of the kind, like that.

Ephesians

And you were dead in the trespasses and sins in which you once walked, following the course of this world, following the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that is now at work in the sons of disobedience—among whom we all once lived in the passions of our flesh, carrying out the desires of the body and the mind, and were by nature children of wrath, like the rest of mankind. But God, being rich in mercy, because of the great love with which he loved us, even when we were dead in our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ—by grace you have been saved—and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, so that in the coming ages he might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus. For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, not a result of works, so that no one may boast. For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them.

Therefore remember that at one time you Gentiles in the flesh, called "the uncircumcision" by what is called the circumcision, which is made in the flesh by hands—remember that you were at that time separated from Christ, alienated from the commonwealth of Israel and strangers to the covenants of promise, having no
